

This Ancient Grandmother comes from the Pleiadian System of Worlds. She embodied on the Earth at the Time of the First Two Golden Ages. The following are excerpts from a direction transmission given in the early spring of 2013. This is not the complete discourse.

This discourse was brought through the Hollow Bone, Yellow Thundercloud Woman and is protected by the legal copyright of Waterfall, Barbara, (2013). No part of this transmission may be altered/changed, or reproduced without permission.

I AM an Ancient Grandmother. I was a Grandmother who was around at a time on the Earth when there was the Ancient Sisterhood. I was an Ancient Grandmother. There were 13 Grandmothers that were here on the Earth, and we had an Ancient Code. It was an Ancient Code of Relationship, of a Way of Being on the Earth. It was a Code of a Sisterhood – A Code of a Way of Relating – An Ethical Code. There has been much that has been disrupted of the Sisterhood through this great amount of time that occurred through patriarchy.

Now we are at this Dawning of this New Golden Age on this Planet. It is time for these Ancient Knowledges of the Sisterhood – the Ancient Knowledge of the Sisterhood of the Shields – the Ancient Knowledges of the 13 Original Grandmothers, and that Ancient Code of the Sisterhood. It is a Covenant to come forth, and it is to be a Radiation For People upon the planet. In particular, at this time, it is to be a Radiation For Women upon the planet.

It's very necessary for Women to come together – for Women to examine the impact that living in a patriarchy has had on their relationships – Um ... The games that people play in a patriarchy /in a hierarchy... The way that it has been – women – not all women, but a lot of women, and particularly for European ancestry, and other Nations of upon the Planet. But of course there are Nations upon the Planet – especially -- in particular with Indigenous Peoples on the Planet – Indigenous women that have that remembrance of that Ancient Sisterhood, and still carry the Codes of That. On the most part, Indigenous women still know how to be together in Sisterhood.

[I spoke earlier about games people play.] I am speaking about the games, the games that men and women play with each other – the games that women play with each other, and how women have betrayed each other – betrayed trust, and been in competition with each other. And there is a necessity to do some very, very deep spiritual searching, questing, soul searching about that, and to develop and to bring into being Rituals, Ceremonies that are about the Renewal of the Sisterhood.

And so there is a necessity to bring these Ancient Knowledges back. That is a very important part of the work that is being done in the School of the Feminine Divine in New Zealand¹, and it is to be an important part of the work that the Institute of Divine Justice in Canada will do to bring back that balance. Women are so willing to support men, women are so willing to stand behind a man, but to support a woman ... hmm, that is not necessarily something that is really forthcoming. So, uh, and that's something that We, that You – that we all have to um, teach each other -- how to do that again. We can be supporting you on our side, [but we also desire] to reinforce for you that you've got to stand in, and Be Pillars on Earth for Each Other.

You've as women have got to ask yourselves some really important questions, because in a patriarchy, women don't take themselves seriously. They defer their authority -- their power to something that is outside of themselves. But it is so incredibly important. It really is Women's Time Now. It's Time to come back to that Goddess – the Goddess – the Primacy of the Goddess on the Planet. And not in the Amazonian sense you know that, or in that radical feminist sense, but it's just time.

Eventually you know that the male and the female will be balanced on the Planet. But because of it's been so off-balance, there is a necessity now for the feminine principle to come forward, and to come into the forefront. But, quite literally it's often – it's women that are pulling women down. So there is a necessity to mirror, and to role model being supportive to other women. There are some of you who know how to be in your power, but you know how to not diminish the power of another woman. There are some of you who have the Medicine where you're in your power, and your medicine is one where you encourage another to sit in their power. And it's not about being in competition. You understand that --everybody has to come into their power. And I'm going to tell you this – there are not too many people on the Planet that know how to do that! [to support everyone coming into their power].

So, often times when you get together in a circle and you have powerful women, and let's say you are the leader, you are the facilitating, or you are the conductor of the ceremony, or whatever. Then you will have women in the ceremony that will try to usurp your power, because that's what happens in the patriarchy right.

So there has to be a message given to women so that they understand that there are "Keepers of these Knowleges," that there are "Keepers of these Ancient Codes." So what I am speaking into is those of you women who have this encoding and you feel inspired to step into leadership, into your Service Work. You must understand this encoding comes from the Stars. It comes from the Land. It comes from a deep connection to the Land. It comes from living on this Earth for many, many, many embodiments. But it is also encodings that come from the Stars, and it is actually coming from the 12th and the 13th dimensions. It is a very, very high encoding, and there are women on your Planet that are Vessels of that encoding. (So these knowledges are) really coming in now and these knowledges are coming from Grandmother Spider – it really, really is.

It goes back to the Original – the Original Peoples who embodied the Earth – the Original Races that came to the Earth. The Original Races that came to the Earth aren't here any more. They are Ascended. I AM Ascended, (and I lived in the time of the first two Golden Ages on Earth). So, the Root Races that are on the Earth now are not the Original Ones.

So this is an Old, Old, Old Knowledge, and It is Knowledges that haven't been paramount of the Earth for a Very, Very Long Time. So we are talking about the First Golden Age. We are talking about the Second Golden Age. We are talking about Ancient, Ancient, Ancient, Ancient Time – that we are talking about the Original Covenants on the Earth, and the original way that Life was organized on the Earth -- the way women's lives were organized on the Earth – the role that women had on the Earth. It is so incredibly important that these knowledges are brought back to the Earth in this Seventh Golden Age. Of course, you know. You have been told that in this Seventh Golden Age you can't have Ascended Beings on the Earth as your Teachers, because that hasn't worked (in the past). So it is people who are Encoded, who have received the encoding, and carry the encoding of that Original Knowledge [who are embodied and are here to assist]. So you people who live on the Earth now weren't originally there, (living on the Earth in the first two Golden Ages). You weren't the first Root Races that were on the Earth. But this encoding of knowledge has come through the Star Beings -- have come through Grandmother Spider. There are some of you who have a deep, deep connection to Grandmother Spider. Um. You are her Daughters. [So some of you were given that encoding through her.] Some of you have had to be incognito to survive living on the Earth. But it really is a time now where – it's safe. It's safe to be Who You Are on this Planet. It is safe now. And it is time to come forward. So there is a real necessity for Ritual – a ritual to anoint yourselves, and bring that anointing back -- to put the Ancient Headdresses back on, and the role that some of you had (in past embodiments).

There are women on the Planet who were involved with the Women of the Nile. At that time -- those Women of the Nile, a lot of those women that are on the Planet now – the Priestesses, well ... it's a bit corrupted. It's not pure, because many don't understand. They've been corrupted by a sense of hierarchy. So really to be Lifted Up as that Priestess if you want to use that word – that High Priestess, or even from an Indigenous perspective the Clan Mother. It wasn't about a power trip. It wasn't about the focus being on you. It was about how your Role was to assist. It was a service role and a lot of women don't get that. Do you understand what I am saying?

So, we've noticed that with some women – it is about “them.” It's about them being the Great Leader, the Great Mother. But, it's what women do when they are empowered. There is a corruption that can occur. So you can feel empowered and then you use that feeling of empowerment to diminish another, and that is not what it is about. It is about everybody coming into their power.

Do you understand?

This Ancient Grand Mother has so much that she desires to bring forth at this time to assist women on the Planet. For further information about booking individual or group sessions with this Master, or other Masters contact bwaterfall8@gmail.com
