Greetings Beloveds;

It is I, the One that you know as White Buffalo Calf Woman, and I AM here today to pass a message of encouragement and to say, "That all is evolving as it should. There are great changes coming upon the Planet at this time – seen and unseen changes in your third dimensional realm, and yet changes none-the-less are occurring. I give you message of encouragement. I encourage you to keep on, keeping on, following in your practice, in your spiritual practice -- keep on -- keep on. I encourage you.

I Am the One who is a younger of the sisters, of the Seven Sisters of the Pleiadian System. I came to the People, to the Lakota People, and brought the Seven Sacred Rites of the Lakota People. One of those rights being the Sun Dance ...

The way has been opened for a Great Intervention to occur for the Indigenous Peoples of this Earth. [Members of] the I AM Race [has] stepped up to the plate, and [learned of] it's Divine Responsibilities that [they have with respect to] the Indigenous Peoples of this Earth. And in particular, when I say Indigenous Peoples of the Earth I speak about the First Peoples -- the ones who are known as the First Peoples of North, Central and South America, Hawaii, New Zealand, Australia, Tanzania ...

The Indigenous Peoples of the Earth, as some [of you] have been informed in another dispensation – the Indigenous Peoples of the Earth came from a distant Star system. They came to this Earth as a highly specialized I AM Race of Peoples, with highly specialized and advanced I AM knowledges. [They came with] very advanced knowledges in terms of what is referred to as the Impersonal I AM, being in communion with, and the Creation of what desires to Create through communication with the Impersonal I AM, with all the Elemental Beings -- all the elemental beings that exist on the Earth, and all that is of the domain of the elemental realm.

Much was unresolved, until the way was made for intervention to occur on behalf of First Nations Peoples, the Indigenous Peoples of the Earth. We could not intervene, until we were asked to, and the way was made open -- the way was made open. A request, a request in asking for assistance, doubled with the responsibility of asking for assistance by the I AM Race, and so you see the Infinity symbol has been brought into fulfillment. [It has been a] – flow of energies of the Infinity symbol. ... The Indigenous Peoples requesting assistance -- assistance coming forward from the I AM Race of Peoples -- the Indigenous Peoples accepting that assistance -- the I AM Race continuing to fulfill its obligations, and so you see the energies of Infinity, the flow of Infinity are now beginning to flow at such a momentous change on this Earth. [It is] such a momentous occurrence that has occurred. Much still will occur as these prayers for intervention are answered -- as changes occur on the Earth, and humanity awakens to the reality of the injustices that have occurred toward the Indigenous Peoples of these Lands that I have spoke of, and as there develops such an intolerance for injustice. Change/changes are occurring. And Change is coming from our Realms. Change is coming from the Ascended Masters Realms. Change is coming from Higher Dimensions. Oh the Sacred Fire. The Sacred Fire has come. The Sacred Fire will bring profound changes to this Planet.

And so there has been, with the acceptance of the I AM Race, fulfilling its responsibilities to Stand Up and Pray on behalf of Indigenous Peoples of the Earth -- much has been stirred, much has been activated. ...

As more change occurs. As more peoples becomes cognizant of how within the 3d realm -- how within/under the spell of duality, First Nations Peoples/Indigenous Peoples have been taken advantage of. ... [As more peoples become cognizant of how Indigenous knowledges] have been taken, without credit given and transformed, transmuted into some fragment of the truth of what it originally was. As more and more people become aware of this and the injustice of what this is -- more and more people will fall down to their knees and cry and ask for forgiveness -- as they wake up to what they have done, and role that they have played, or how they have been complicit with a very oppressive system and way of being in the world that has just constructed the Indigenous Peoples of the world as less then, as inferior --justifying -- justifying the oppression -- justifying the stealing of lands, justifying the inhuman treatment that has occurred.

I could go into more detail about this history, and yet there is not the necessity, for all these things are coming out into the open because of the intervention that has occurred, and all these things are coming into the Light. And so there will be a time when the Indigenous Peoples as an Advanced I AM Peoples, will Stand with the I AM Race and will collectively work toward building this new --Co-creating this new World of Peace.

There has been some information given that the Indigenous Peoples of the World will be called back to their Home from whence they came, and yet there is also information given from that One who you know as Buffalo Shaman¹ who said, this can not occur, while things are unresolved, and indeed there is much knowledge for the Indigenous Peoples to share. And what a loss of knowledge that would be -- what a Great Loss it would be -- if that knowledge wasn't called upon and people learned from.

¹ Buffalo Shaman gave this discourse on January 3, 2012, through the Hollow Bone, Yellow Thundercloud Woman in Ottawa, Ontario.

The Indigenous Peoples of these lands, yes, protected the Lands. They ensured that the lands of the Americas were on the most part, free from the discord that exists from other parts of the world. [Yet, I do recognize that] there was discord -- I recognize that there were wars [on these lands]. The reason why I had to come [to be among the Lakota People] in the first place was because of how discordant the people had become. But, for the Indigenous Peoples of the world, they did listen to their teachers who came, and balance came to be restored again. Whereas in other parts of the world -- well we know what they did with their Great Teacher, they, they crucified him.

So, let us get back to what I was saying, there – it would be such a loss if people do not learn to have the respect, and have the relationship with the Indigenous Peoples -- in the spirit of respectful co-existence -- in that spirit of respectful co-existence, learning from each other, sharing each other's knowledge, sharing and expanding, and growing, and enabling this Earth to move forward with the knowledges and technologies, and Way of Being in the world that is being birthed at this time. And so let us not forget about the Indigenous knowledge and the value, the Great Value and Wisdom that exists in this knowledge.

And so there will come a time, when there will be right relationship on this land. It is guaranteed. And so for those of you that are concerned -- for those of you who lose heart -- for those of you who are involved in the Idle No More Movement.² That is a very important movement, and we encourage you to continue on. But take heart, change will happen. Change will occur and there will be peace on this land. It is assured.

The knowledge of the Sacred Fire, the knowledge of the Spiritual Fire that comes from the Great Central Sun – that comes from the Heart of Creation. This Fire is a Fire that we can call upon, that we can bring into our Life, and the varied radiations of that fire, whether it be violet, [whether it be lavender,] whether it be blue, whether it be blue lightning fire and force, whether it be indigo, whether it be white, whether it be crystalline purity, whether it be pink, whether it be green/emerald, whether it be gold, whether it be yellow. All the various colors of the Rainbow. The Rainbow Fires. That is what the Teaching, the Hopi Teaching of the Rainbow Warriors was about. That Teaching was about the Peoples that would come to learn about the Sacred Fire, and would learn to Wield the Sacred Fire -- would learn of the Protocol of How to Pray and Bring Forth that Great Intervention of the Sacred Fire to the Earth. That is the prophecy of the Rainbow Warriors.

The other issue that I wish to speak to you about, ... that embedded within the AIM Movement, in the name of AIM, the American Indian Movement that that naming had a Divine Purpose, and if you take a part that name, American Indian Movement –

² Idle No More is an ongoing peaceful resistance movement that originated in December of 2012 by Indigenous women in Canada.

"A I M," and move the lettering around you see – "I AM." And what is required right now is that the Indigenous Peoples of the World learn of the Mighty Usage of the word "I AM." I AM is the Name of Creator. I AM is the Name of Great Spirit. It is a Name that is enshrined in Truth, in Power. It is a Name that can be Called Upon, and it is a profound Truth that if one Prays in that Name of "I AM," and calls upon intervention in the name of "I AM," or better than that, recognizing one's own Divinity: [Call out]

"I AM the Presence Calling upon Beloved White Buffalo Calf Woman. I AM the Presence Calling to Saint Germain. I AM the Presence Calling to the Goddess of Justice. I AM Calling Forth the Violet flames – a perfect balance of Light and Love – a perfect balance of Male and Female. I AM Calling Forth the Violet Flames of Transformation/Transmutation to Come Upon this Earth Now. I AM Calling Forth the Lavender Flames of Divine Justice to Come Forth Now. I Command. I Demand Divine Justice Come Upon All the Peoples of the Earth Now. Come Upon the Earth. Come Upon the Elements of the Earth. Come Upon All Life Upon This Planet Now. I Command and Demand This in the Name of My Mighty I AM. All Mighty I Am. All Mighty I AM. All Mighty I Am."

It is time for the sharing of knowledges. It is time [for the sharing of] knowledges between the Indigenous Peoples and the I AM Race -- the Awakened I AM Race. It is Time and It is Paramount that these knowledges be shared now -- To create Context for the sharing of these knowledges now.

In closing, worry not about human dynamics in the 3d, and focus, focus, focus on your I AM Presence. Focus on the Divine Justice of Connection with the Truth of your Divinity and the Power that is Yours, and Bring that Forth into the World. Make That your Priority. Make that your Service, and All Things Will Come unto you, and let whatever is the human -- let it go, for its' days are numbered on the Planet.

I love you. ... It has been a great Honor to Speak to you this day. I will close now.
